

Ireland's commitment to a world without poverty and hunger

'WE' (KRAN, GERE, GUERE WOBE, GWERE, NGERE WOBO, WEE)
Côte d'Ivoire and Liberia

'We' masks are owned by families and used by individual members for social events, rituals and entertainment. Most 'We' masks were created to frighten with the gaping jaws, tubular eyes and enlarged triangular nose. 'We' means "men who easily forgive."
